Independence Day 2025 Celebration

On the eve of Independence Day, a celebration was organized on 14th August 2025 in the premises of the RCS Office. The event was graced by Sh. Krishana Kumar Singh, Registrar, Sh. Lekhraj, Additional Registrar, along with other officers and officials of the office.

Addressing the gathering, Sh. Lekhraj, Additional Registrar, motivated the staff to celebrate Independence Day with full enthusiasm, integrity, and a sense of national pride. He also emphasized the importance of maintaining discipline, dedication, and teamwork in professional as well as personal life for the progress of the nation.

On this occasion, all staff members took a solemn pledge to:

- Keep the office and its surroundings neat and clean,
- Adopt eco-friendly practices in daily work,
- Plant and nurture trees in support of the campaign “Ek Ped Maa Ke Naam”,
- Contribute actively towards nation-building through honesty and responsibility in their duties.

The celebration concluded with a vote of thanks, distribution of sweets, and a collective resolve to work with renewed energy and commitment towards a better tomorrow.
