Brief Information on the Activity	• Celebrations on World Environment Day on 5th June 2025 On June 5th, 2025, the Cooperative Department of Bihar marked World Environment Day with a powerful and heartfelt campaign aimed at raising environmental awareness, inspiring grassroots action, and fostering community cooperation across the state. Theme: “EK PED MAA KE NAAM” (A Tree in Mother's Name) This emotionally resonant theme encouraged citizens to honour their mothers by planting a tree in her name, blending environmental stewardship with cultural sentiment. It served as a unifying call to action, connecting personal values with ecological responsibility. Role of Cooperative Societies • Cooperative societies acted as local hubs for organizing plantation events. • They facilitated distribution of saplings, awareness sessions, and community mobilization. • Offices were transformed into green zones, symbolizing their commitment to sustainability. • Celebration of International Day of Yoga on 21st June 2025 On the auspicious International Day of Yoga, several yoga sessions were organized across the state organized by the Department of Cooperatives, Govt. of Bihar, reflecting a strong commitment to holistic well-being and community engagement. Highlights of the Celebrations • The main event was held in Bodh Gaya, the event saw the presence of Hon'ble Minister Dr. Prem Kumar, who highlighted yoga's role in fostering inner peace and societal well-being. • Additionally, an event took place at the headquarters of the Bihar State Cooperative Bank, Patna, where several officials and employees participated in a guided yoga session. • The event was graced by Shri Dharmendra Singh, Secretary of the Cooperative Department, Bihar, who emphasized the importance of yoga in achieving physical, mental, and spiritual development. • In his address, he encouraged cooperative institutions to integrate wellness practices like yoga into their daily routines to enhance productivity and harmony.

	Statewide Participation - Yoga camps were also conducted at panchayat level, coordinated by the district co-operative office and cooperative societies throughout Bihar. - These decentralized events ensured widespread participation from cooperative members and local communities, promoting inclusivity and awareness. Workshop on "Sahkarita se Samriddhi" As part of the nationwide initiative "Sahkarita se Samriddhi" (Prosperity through Cooperation), a one-day workshop was held at the Dashrath Manjhi Institute of Labour and Employment, Patna. The event aimed to strengthen cooperative institutions, promote inclusive development, and encourage dialogue among stakeholders in the cooperative ecosystem. The workshop was graced by Hon'ble Minister Cooperatives, Govt. of Bihar. The other dignitaries were MD SCCB, DDM NANABRD, JRCS Patna, members from PACS and Bank officials.
Objective	1. Celebrations on World Environment Day on 5th June 2025 Objectives : Raise Awareness Among Cooperative Societies - Educate members of Primary Agricultural Credit Societies (PACS), cooperative banks, and other institutions about the importance of environmental protection. - Conduct workshops, rallies, and awareness drives to highlight the impact of pollution and deforestation on local ecosystems. Promote Sustainable Practices - Encourage tree plantation drives as a long-term solution to combat climate change and restore biodiversity. - Advocate for plastic reduction, waste segregation, and eco-friendly alternatives in daily operations of cooperative offices and societies. Align with the Global Theme – "Beat Plastic Pollution" - Integrate the UNEP's 2025 theme into local actions by: - Reducing single-use plastics in cooperative offices. - Promoting reusable materials and green packaging. - Organizing clean-up drives in rural and semi-urban areas. Key Initiative: "EK PED MAA KE NAAM" - A heartfelt campaign encouraging individuals to plant a tree in honour of their mothers. - Over 10 lakh saplings were planted across 12,000 cooperative societies and offices, creating a massive green footprint across Bihar. Community Engagement - Active participation from cooperative members, local communities, students, and government officials. - Events were designed to foster collective responsibility and grassroots involvement in environmental stewardship.
