Achievements & Outcomes	1. Health camps have been organized in all PACS, blocks and DCCBs Health camps were successfully conducted across all Primary Agricultural Credit Societies (PACS), blocks, and District Central Cooperative Banks (DCCBs) in Bihar as part of the International Year of Cooperatives 2025. These camps were held at designated cooperative premises and coordinated by the District Cooperative Officers, Managing Directors of DCCBs, and Assistant Registrars, with medical supervision provided by the District Civil Surgeons. The initiative ensured wide participation from PACS chairman, managers, and cooperative members, demonstrating strong inter-departmental collaboration and community engagement. The health camps provided essential medical services and health awareness to cooperative members, especially in rural areas where access to healthcare is limited. They strengthened the link between cooperative institutions and public health systems, promoting a holistic approach to member welfare. The camps also helped build trust and visibility for cooperative societies within their communities. As per the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP), detailed reports, photographs, and videos were submitted to the department, ensuring transparency and documentation of the initiative's impact. 2.Swachhata Hi Seva Campaign (Swachhata Utsav) The Swachhata Hi Seva-2025 campaign, held during the International Year of Cooperatives 2025, brought many positive results. Offices and society premises became cleaner and more hygienic, and people developed a stronger sense of working together for cleanliness. Health camps gave sanitation workers important medical help, while awareness sessions informed them about government welfare schemes. Fun activities like rangoli making and art-from-waste competitions encouraged creativity and care for the environment. The "One Day, One Hour Together" cleaning drives-built teamwork and community spirit. On Gandhi Jayanti, sanitation workers and competition winners were honoured, which helped promote respect, inclusion, and pride in cooperative values. Overall, the campaign created lasting awareness and unity in both offices and communities. 3.Celebration of Mukhyamantri Adarsh PACS Protsahan Yojna under IYC Campaign 2025 The Mukhyamantri Adarsh PACS Protsahan Yojna 2025 marked a significant milestone in strengthening the cooperative movement in Bihar. Under this flagship initiative, 100 best-performing Primary Agricultural Credit Societies (PACS) across the state were identified and felicitated for their outstanding contributions to cooperative development. The recognition of top-performing PACS at the state level, with awards of ₹15 lakh, ₹10 lakh, and ₹7 lakh for first, second, and third positions respectively, showcased the government's commitment to promoting excellence and transparency in cooperative governance. Additionally, district-level evaluations led to the awarding of

₹5 lakh, ₹3 lakh, and ₹2 lakh to the top three districts, encouraging healthy competition and performance benchmarking across regions.

The scheme successfully motivated PACS to adopt better management practices, improve service delivery, and actively participate in rural development. It created a sense of pride and ownership among cooperative members and leaders, leading to increased engagement and accountability. The financial incentives provided under the scheme enabled winning PACS to invest in infrastructure, technology, and member welfare initiatives. At the district level, the outcome was a more structured and performance-driven approach to cooperative administration, fostering innovation and collaboration among stakeholders. Overall, the initiative contributed to building a more vibrant, efficient, and inclusive cooperative ecosystem in Bihar.

4.Training cum Workshop for Primary Vegetable Cooperative Societies (PVCS)

The training cum workshop for Primary Vegetable Cooperative Societies (PVCS) was successfully organized at Urja Auditorium, Patna, as part of the International Year of Cooperatives 2025. The event was inaugurated by the Hon'ble Minister of the Cooperative Department in the presence of senior officials including the Secretary and Registrar of Cooperative Societies (RCS). The program saw enthusiastic participation from PVCS chairpersons across Bihar and received wide media coverage, highlighting the importance of vegetable cooperatives in enhancing rural livelihoods. The sessions focused on improving cooperative management, production techniques, and market access for vegetable growers.

The workshop helped PVCS members gain practical knowledge in areas such as crop planning, post-harvest handling, and cooperative governance. It encouraged better coordination among societies and promoted the adoption of modern agricultural practices. Participants left with improved understanding of how to manage their cooperatives more efficiently and connect with buyers and markets. The event also strengthened the role of PVCS in supporting small farmers, increasing income opportunities, and contributing to food and nutritional security in Bihar.

5.One-day training cum workshop for Primary Beekeeping and Processing Societies was organized at DNS RICM, Patna

The training cum workshop successfully brought together members of honey cooperative societies from across Bihar, fostering a collaborative learning environment. Organized by the Cooperative Department at DNS RICM, Patna, the event was attended by key officials including the Secretary, Registrar of Cooperative Societies (RCS), and nodal officers, which added credibility and institutional support. The program covered essential topics such as scientific beekeeping, hygienic honey extraction, and marketing strategies, helping participants gain practical knowledge and confidence. It also
