Sir,

Sub: Cooperation Department - IYC 2025 (International Year of Cooperatives 2025) - Conducting celebrations - Submitting the monthly action plan for the month of August -2025- Regarding

Ref: Letter File No.AGC06-13034/5/2025-PAC SEC-CCRCS,
Dt:21.01.2025 of t h e Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, AP, Guntur.

I invite kind attention to the subject & reference cited.

It is submitted that, as a part of IYC-2025 monthly Programme a “seminar on financial inclusion on 30.08.2025” have been conducted by the District Coop. Officer, Srikakulam along with DCCB Ltd., Srikakulam. For the seminar the staff of Cooperation department, DCCB staff have attended.

During the seminar, in his speech, Sri K. Damodara Rao, Assistant Registrar, has explained that, the Financial inclusion means providing affordable financial services—such as savings, credit, insurance, remittance, and financial literacy—to all sections of society, especially low-income and rural populations. Cooperative societies play a vital role in promoting financial inclusion, due to their democratic structure and grassroots presence in the District. He also raised some of the technological barriers like online frauds and usage of online apps while making transactions online and how it is becoming hurdles in the way of financial inclusion in the rural population. It can be achieved through financial and technological literacy and awareness for safe banking.

Smt V.V.S. Raghmani, Chief Manager, DCCB Ltd., Srikakulam has explained the financial literacy to the students and conducting awareness in the villages about financial services and utilize the services of the DCCB as well as PACS to achieve goals in their life.

The seminar was conducted in a befitting manner depicting the purpose and goals of the IYC-2025 with grand success.

In view of above the photographs of the Programme is submitted hereunder:

Yours faithfully

Sir,

Sub: Cooperation Department – Parvathipuram Manyam-IYC 2025 (International year of Cooperatives 2025) – Conducting Celebrations – Submitted the monthly action plan for the month of August – 2025 – Regarding.

Ref: 1. Letter RC.No. AGCO6-13034/5/2025-PAC SEC- CCRCS, Dated.21.01.2025 of the Commissioner for Cooperation and Registrar of Cooperative Societies, Andhra Pradesh, Guntur.

I invite kind attention to the subject & references cited.

It is submitted that, as part of IYC -2025 monthly Programme a “Monsoon Hygiene Campaign” on 23rd August 2025 have been Successfully conducted by the District Cooperative Officer, Parvathipuram Manyam. This initiative was launched in response to the seasonal surge in vector-borne diseases such as dengue, malaria, and chikungunya, with the aim of safeguarding public health and promoting environmental hygiene.

The campaign was marked by the active and enthusiastic participation of all Cooperative Department officials and staff and members of all 42 Primary Agricultural Cooperative Societies and 04 GCC in the district. Their collective efforts significantly contributed to the campaign's success and outreach.

The programme was strategically designed around the following core focus areas to ensure maximum public health impact and community engagement:

Eradication of Mosquito Breeding Grounds: Systematic identification and elimination of stagnant water sources to disrupt mosquito life cycles and reduce the risk of vector-borne diseases.

Promotion of Hygiene Awareness: Targeted outreach to rural and semi-urban populations to adopt best practices in personal and environmental hygiene, fostering a culture of health consciousness.

Mobilization of Cooperative Societies for Public Health Action: Activation of Primary Agricultural Cooperative Societies as grassroots leaders in sanitation drives, enabling widespread participation and ownership of local health initiatives.

Distribution of Educational Materials for Preventive Health: Distribution of informative palmplates to reinforce knowledge on disease prevention, safe water practices, and household sanitation techniques.

Main Activities taken up

Distribution of Palmplates on Mosquito Awareness

- * Informative palmplates were prepared in the Office and distributed across all PACS to educate the public on mosquito-borne diseases.
- * The palmplates were well-received and served as a practical tool for awareness.

Premises and Drainage Cleaning Drives

- * Cooperative department staff and PACS employees organized mass cleaning drives in their respective areas.
- * Public spaces, Office premises society premises, and surrounding localities were cleared of waste and stagnant water.
- * Drainage systems were unclogged and disinfected to prevent mosquito breeding.

Elimination of Mosquito Breeding Sources

- * Removal of unused water containers such as broken pots, discarded tires, and plastic bins.
- * Cleaning of water coolers, air conditioner outlets, and rooftop water tanks.
- * Flower pots, balconies, and other water-retaining surfaces were monitored and cleaned.

Community Engagement and Education

- * PACS staff conducted door-to-door visits to educate households on hygiene practices.
- * Awareness sessions were held in village centers, shopping locations, and cooperative offices.

The Monsoon Hygiene Campaign conducted in August 2025 by the Cooperation Department in Parvathipuram Manyam District was a resounding success, driven by the active involvement of all departmental officials and 42 Primary Agricultural Cooperative Societies and 04 GCCs. Focused on eliminating mosquito breeding grounds, promoting hygiene awareness, and distributing educational palmplates, the programme mobilized staff and members to clean premises, clear drainages, and remove stagnant water sources across rural and semi-urban areas. Their coordinated efforts significantly improved public sanitation, heightened disease prevention awareness

The success of the Monsoon Hygiene Campaign is vividly reflected in the photographs enclosed below, which capture the enthusiastic participation of Cooperative Department officials and members of the 42 Primary Agricultural Cooperative Societies.

International Year of Cooperatives 2025_East Godavari District August 2025 Activities

The Cooperation Department of East Godavari District successfully conducted a district-wide Monsoon Hygiene Campaign on 23rd August 2025. This initiative was launched in response to the seasonal surge in vector-borne diseases such as dengue, malaria, and chikungunya, with the aim of safeguarding public health and promoting environmental hygiene.

The campaign was marked by the active and enthusiastic participation of all Cooperative Department officials and staff and members of all 107 Primary Agricultural Cooperative Societies in the district. Their collective efforts significantly contributed to the campaign's success and outreach.

The programme was strategically designed around the following core focus areas to ensure maximum public health impact and community engagement:

Eradication of Mosquito Breeding Grounds: Systematic identification and elimination of stagnant water sources to disrupt mosquito life cycles and reduce the risk of vector-borne diseases.

Promotion of Hygiene Awareness: Targeted outreach to rural and semi-urban populations to adopt best practices in personal and environmental hygiene, fostering a culture of health consciousness.

Mobilization of Cooperative Societies for Public Health Action: Activation of Primary Agricultural Cooperative Societies as grassroots leaders in sanitation drives, enabling widespread participation and ownership of local health initiatives.

Distribution of Educational Materials for Preventive Health: Distribution of informative palmplates to reinforce knowledge on disease prevention, safe water practices, and household sanitation techniques.

Main Activities taken up

Distribution of Palmplates on Mosquito Awareness

- ❖ Informative palmplates were prepared in the Office and distributed across all PACS to educate the public on mosquito-borne diseases.
- ❖ The palmplates were well-received and served as a practical tool for awareness.

Premises and Drainage Cleaning Drives

- ❖ Cooperative department staff and PACS employees organized mass cleaning drives in their respective areas.
- ❖ Public spaces, Office premises society premises, and surrounding localities were cleared of waste and stagnant water.

SWACHH ANDHRA – SWACHH DIWAS
PROGRAMME
Date: 16-08-2025

On 16.08.2025, a Special Workshop was organized by the Divisional Cooperative Officer, Tirupati, at the premises of the Divisional Cooperative Office, Tirupati, on the theme “Swachh Andhra – Swachh Diwas Programme.”

Speaking on the occasion, the dignitaries emphasized that the Swachh Andhra – Swachh Diwas Programme is not merely an event of symbolic importance but a people’s movement aimed at transforming cleanliness into a sustainable collective practice.

The programme highlighted the role of Cooperative Societies and rural communities in promoting cleanliness and hygiene, emphasizing that cleanliness should become a sustained collective practice rather than an occasional activity.

Speakers stressed the need for awareness, sanitation drives, waste management, and community participation to build a cleaner, greener, and healthier Andhra Pradesh, with Cooperative Institutions taking the lead in mobilizing people at the grassroots level.
