

Cooperative Literacy Program– 10 September 2025 – Kulpi, South 24 Parganas, West Bengal

A program on Cooperative Literacy was conducted in Kulpi, South 24 Parganas on 10.09.2025.

Based on the District wise Allocation of 5 Cooperative Literacy Programmes to be conducted in each district, the first program in South 24 Parganas on the occasion of the International Year of Cooperatives was conducted in Kulpi, South 24 Parganas. The program was organised jointly by Sonatori Women Welfare Committee working in Kulpi Block and their mother NGO, Chaltaberia Gonounnayan Samiti, North 24 Parganas in the presence of PACS members, farmers and SHG members from Kulpi Block.

A fruitful discussion was held regarding the importance of the cooperative sector, its impact at ground level and the necessary support they provide to the rural economy through credit and non- credit means. The performance of various Self Help Group members, the cooperative bank linkage, the activities they have undertaken was discussed. The members were also apprised about various Ministry of Cooperation NABARD schemes and departments from where they can benefit. The farmers, members were also apprised about the Agriculture Infrastructure Fund and how they can make use of it.

Some of the photographs from the event is attached below.

Soham Chatterjee

Soham Chatterjee

AGM

DDM, South 24 Parganas

10.09.2025