

Cooperative Society registration Certificate Distribution Activities under IYC 2025 at Ranchi, Jharkhand (7th May 2025)

Criteria	Details
Sector	Dairy, Fisheries and Vegetable etc.
Location	Ranchi, Jharkhand.
Event/Activity Name	Certificate distribution of newly registered cooperative societies cum workshop on basic principles of cooperative.
Brief Information on the Activity	A special event was organized under International Year of Cooperative 2025 to distribute registration certificates to newly formed 50 cooperative societies of different sectors. The program was graced by the Hon. Minister for Agriculture, Animal Husbandry & Cooperative, Jharkhand, Smt. Shilpi Neha Tirkey, who personally handed over the certificates to representatives of each society. The initiative aims to promote self-reliance and empower local communities by encouraging cooperative development. The minister emphasized the role of cooperatives in fostering economic growth, employment, and inclusive development. The event also featured a brief orientation session on cooperative management and government support schemes. The other higher officials emphasized on key benefits of cooperative societies like, Economic Empowerment, Democratic Management, Employment Generation, Social Inclusion, Profit sharing, Access to Government Schemes & Resilience and Sustainability. In this event 20 Dairy Cooperative, 6 Fisheries cooperative, 9 Vegetables cooperative, 4 Women Empowerment Cooperative, 6 Poultry cooperative, 3 Labor cooperative & 2 Industrial cooperative newly registered societies representatives were present.
Objective	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Encouragement and Motivation: To inspire other cooperative institutions and leaders to adopt best practices and strive for excellence in governance and service delivery. 2. Promotion of Cooperative Values: To reinforce the principles of cooperation, transparency, and community development among stakeholders. 3. Enhancing Accountability: To promote responsibility and good management practices within cooperative societies through public recognition.

	4. Support for Cooperative Education: To appreciate the role of cooperative principals in promoting cooperative education and values among students and the community
No. of Participants	250
Achievements & Outcomes	Achievements: Successfully organized a program under the leadership of the Minister for Agriculture, Animal Husbandry & Cooperative, Jharkhand. Honored cooperators and government officials for their role in promoting cooperative education and leadership. Promoted awareness of the importance of accountability and transparency within the cooperative sector. Outcomes: Boosted morale and motivation among cooperative stakeholders. Encouraged other societies and principals to adopt best practices and strive for recognition. Strengthened the image of the cooperative sector as a pillar of community development. Fostered a culture of appreciation, innovation, and responsibility in cooperative institutions. To promote awareness about cooperative movement among societies members under IYC 2025.
Additional Remarks	The program reflects the government's continued commitment to strengthening the cooperative movement as a tool for inclusive development. It highlighted the importance of leadership and innovation in cooperative management and education. The recognition initiative serves as a model for encouraging healthy competition and accountability among cooperative institutions. Future programs may consider including training sessions, success story sharing, and interactive discussions to further empower cooperative leaders.

	The active involvement of the Minister added significance to the event and reinforced the importance of government support in cooperative growth.
--	--

