

“Ek Pedh Maa ke Naam” tree plantation campaign was organised across the Union Territory of J&K as part of the International Year of Cooperatives (IYC). Around 10,000 saplings were planted by various sectors of the Cooperative Department to promote environmental sustainability and community participation. The noble initiative encouraged tree plantation in memory and honour of mothers, fostering a greener and more sustainable future. Some glimpses of the event are:

PLANTATION DRIVE

