

Cooperative Literacy Camp by NABARD at Nartora PACS, Mahasamund District

NABARD organised the captioned programme on 02.06.2025. The event was coordinated by Shri Priyabrata Sahu, District Development Manager, NABARD, and was attended by Shri G. M. Sahu, Branch Manager, DCCB Raipur, Jhalap Branch; the President and officials of the PACS; as well as its members.

At the outset, the DDM, NABARD, explained the meaning and types of cooperatives, the principles and history of the cooperative movement in India, and its role in nation-building. He also elaborated on various schemes of the Government of India, State Government, and NABARD in the cooperative sector. The importance of Kisan Credit Card (KCC) in the animal husbandry and fisheries sectors was discussed with the active participation of PACS members.
