'Govt. plans to develop sugar and spinning mills on public private partnership mode'

CM N. Rangasamy said several measures are being taken to revive the cooperative sector in Union Territory, and handed over appointment letters to 31 junior inspectors in cooperative societies

Step towards improvement: Chief Minister N. Rangasamy issued appointment orders to six persons on compassionate grounds in the Co-operative Milk Producers' Union in Puducherry, popularly known as Ponlait, on Monday. S.S. KUMAR

Steps are being taken to develop the defunct sugar mill at Lingareddipalayam and the spinning mill at Thirubhuvanai on public private partnership (PPP) mode, Chief Minister N Rangasamy said in Puducherry on Monday.

Participating in an event organised by the Cooperative Department, the Chief Minister said several measures are being taken to revive the cooperative sector in the Union Territory.

"When we came to power, the cooperative societies were in doldrums with government, even finding it difficult to provide salary. The salary issue has been sorted out in 75% of the societies. We are also taking steps to revive the mills at Lingareddipalayam and Thirubhuvanai through PPP mode," the Chief Minister said.

Mr. Rangasamy handed over appointment letters to 31 junior inspectors in cooperative societies.

He also distributed loans to self-help group members and issued appointment orders to six persons on compassionate grounds in the Co-operative Milk Producers' Union in Puducherry, popularly known as Ponlait.

Ice-cream launch

Mr. Rangasamy also launched Ponlait's two new ice-cream variants: the vanilla chocochips and black currant. The variants will be available in 250 ml for ₹75 and 500 ml for ₹140.
