

The Badgaon Agricultural Cooperative Society

The Badgaon Agricultural Cooperative Society is located in Village Badgoan, Gram Panchayat Badgoan, Tehsil Jhandhutta, District Bilaspur, Himachal Pradesh. The society was registered in the year 1964. At present the society has 1952 members. Following services are being provided by the society in its area of operation:

1. Deposit facility
2. Credit facility
3. KCC
4. Insurance facility
5. Provision of agricultural inputs through its Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samridhi Kendra (PMKSK) such as quality seeds, saplings, fertilizers, pesticides, insecticides, weedicides, spray pumps, weeders etc.
6. Common Service Centre
7. PDS outlets
8. Electronics store along with sale of other non-controlled items

Apart from these services, the members of society are also benefitted from the profit generated by the society. The society has generated Rs. 972253/- profit in the last financial year and distributed Rs.105472/- as dividend to its members.

Recently the society has sponsored The Badgaon FPO, and through it the management envisages to process locally procured produce so that better incomes may be generated for the farmers.

The Dabla Agricultural Cooperative Society

The Dabla Agricultural Cooperative Society is located in Village Kothi Gram Panchayat Kothi, Tehsil Ghumarwin, District Bilaspur, Himachal Pradesh. The society was registered in the year 1955. At present the society has 3716 members. Following services are being provided by the society in its area of operation:

1. Deposit facility
2. Credit facility
3. KCC
4. Insurance facility
5. Provision of agricultural inputs through its Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samridhi Kendra (PMKSK) such as quality seeds, saplings, fertilizers, pesticides, insecticides, weedicides, spray pumps, weeders etc.
6. Drone facility to farmers in collaboration with IFFCO for application of fertilizers such as nano urea and Sagarika; pesticides and weedicides.
7. Organisation of awareness camps
8. Common Service Centre
9. PDS outlets

Apart from these services, the members of society are also benefitted from the profit generated by the society. The society has generated Rs.1535439/- profit in the last financial year and distributed Rs. 714420/- as dividend to its members.

The society has also chalked out a plan to construct a grain storage facility of around 3000 MT to address the grain storage deficit in the district.

The Dadhol Agriculture Service Cooperative Society (DASCO)

DASCO is located in Village Padyalag, Gram Panchayat Dadhol, Tehsil Ghumarwin, District Bilaspur, Himachal Pradesh. The society was registered in 1955 by 13 members. At present following services are being provided to more than 10,000 in its area of operation:

1. Deposit facility
2. Credit facility
3. KCC
4. Insurance facility
5. Provision of agricultural inputs through its Pradhan Mantri Kisan Samridhi Kendra (PMKSK) such as quality seeds, saplings, fertilizers, pesticides, insecticides, weedicides, spray pumps, weeders etc.
6. Drone facility to farmers in collaboration with IFFCO for application of fertilizers such as nano urea and Sagarika; pesticides and weedicides.
7. Soil testing facility
8. Common Service Centre
9. PDS outlets

Recently the society has sponsored The Dadhol FPO, and through it the management envisages to process locally procured produce so that better incomes may be generated for the farmers.

